Navy Budget Cut Curtails Events

PLANS WITHDRAWAL OF VESSELS FROM ACTIVE SERVICE

ONLY WAY EFFICIENCY CAN BE MAINTAINED AND STAY WITHIN BOUNDS OF APPROPRIATION

Washington, Oct. 2.—(UP)—The navy plans to lay up approximately one-fifth of the fleet and reduce its enlisted force by several thousand men to meet President Hoover's demands for a $60,000,000 cut in naval expenditures the United Press learned today.

Under this program, some naval vessels of all classes from battleships to submarines would be withdrawn from active service and left with only caretaking crews. After a period as yet undetermined these ships would be returned to active duty and others would be laid up.

High naval officials regard the plan of restricted operations as the only way they can maintain efficiency and at the same time effect the saving asked by Mr. Hoover. In an emergency it would be possible to recruit crews for the idle warships and rapidly restore the navy to approximately its present strength.

The navy now has in active service 259 vessels in the various major classifications. The contemplated reduction would place more than 50 ships on "part time."

The navy's enlisted personnel now numbers slightly more than 80,000 men. Officials believe this could be reduced by 10,000 partly by stopping new enlistments.

The present cost of the navy, exclusive of ship construction, is approximately $860,000 a day, or $310,000,000 per year. Curtailing operations by one-fifth would reduce this figure to $68,000 a day, a yearling or slightly more than the $60,000,000 asked by Mr. Hoover.

Bell Hop Fires at Trio After Hotel Robbery

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Three dapper youths today held up the night clerk and a bell hop at the Francis Drake hotel and escaped with $90 while the bell hop fired on them with a revolver.

Two of the bandits entered the hotel while the third remained at the wheel of a battered grey-tan sedan. The pair held H. O. Giss, clerk, and Gregory Smith, bell boy, at revolver's points. The bandits took $40 from the hotel register and $50 from Smith.

As they dashed out of the lobby, Smith seized a revolver and opened fire. None of the bandits was believed hit.

Escapes After Serving Less Than Week in Prison

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Donald Sigel, 28, Enderlin, escaped from the North Dakota State penitentiary last night after having served less than a week of a year's sentence for grand larceny.

Sigel was working in the dairy barn of the penitentiary and was not seen after 8 p. m. Sigel formerly was an employee of the Soo line railroad.

A reward of $50 has been offered by Warden Turner for information leading to Sigel's recapture.

Form of Beneficent Dictatorship Sought by Group of Multimillionaires, Butler Says

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—(UP)—A group of multimillionaires, seeking a form of beneficent dictatorship, are ready to give up half their fortunes to further the plan, according to Maj. Gen. Smedley Butler, U. S. M. C., retired.

Fourteen of the men who had discussed the plan are worth more than $5,000,000, he said.

A threat of revolution hangs over the country if something is not done to cure present conditions, he said.

The wealthy men propose a program of schools, road building, promotion of inventions and infant industries under an "extra governmental agency headed by a man without capitalistic or partisan ties," he said.

The virtual dictatorship would be legalized by congress. "My idea is to put idle money to work," Butler said.

RANSOM OF ABOUT $100,000 WINS FREEDOM FOR ST. PAUL POLITICIAN

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—St. Louis gangsters were blamed by police today for the kidnaping of Leon Gleckman, wealthy St. Paul politician who returned home after the reported payment of $75,000.

Gleckman, however, denied that he had been kidnaped. "I was fishing near Crane Lake," Gleckman said. "I'm glad to be home. Any man with three youngsters is glad to get home after he's been away a week."

Associates said that the original demand had been $200,000 for Gleckman's release.

A Minneapolis man was said to have pointed Gleckman out as a likely victim to the kidnaping ring. The men were believed by police to be the same responsible for recent kidnapings in Chicago, New York, Detroit and St. Louis.

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Leon Gleckman, wealthy St. Paul politician who has been held by kidnapers for the past eight days, was released today.

Although the amount of the ransom was not made known, it was understood to be slightly under $100,000.

Morris Roisner, business associate of Gleckman, paid the ransom for his friend's release at 4 a. m. today and started for St. Paul with his partner, he notified Mrs. Gleckman. She was assured her husband had not been mistreated and that he was in excellent health, although shaken by his experiences.

The place where Gleckman was held was understood to be a cottage at one of the northern Minnesota or Wisconsin lakes within 150 miles of the Twin Cities.

Gleckman had been called the "brains" of the Twin City alcohol ring by prohibition agents.

Gleckman arrived at his home shortly after 7:30. He told police and newspaper men who questioned him that he had been on a fishing trip in the northern part of Minnesota. He professed to be greatly surprised at the reports that he had been held for ransom by kidnapers.

Gleckman disappeared a week ago Thursday. He was seen by his car as he drove up to the club house for a round of golf. The caddy, Eddie Brown, went into the club house for his golf clubs. When Brown returned, however, Gleckman had disappeared. The local politician was seen in the Loop the same day.

His associate in business, Roisner, went to Chicago in response to a mysterious telephone call. Mrs. Gleckman was reported to have received a letter from her husband, postmarked from Chicago saying he was well but held by kidnapers.

Roisner disappeared for several days in Chicago and for a time it was hinted that he also might have been captured by the gang holding Gleckman. Yesterday Roisner telephoned from Chicago to local friends that he had contacted with the "right people." Apparently he left for the Twin Cities to pay the ransom and then met Gleckman.

LINDBERGH UNHURT PRIVATE FOREIGN INTERESTS SELL STOCK HOLDINGS

FAMOUS FLIER AND WIFE FALL INTO RIVER BUT WERE RESCUED WITHOUT INJURY

Washington, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Consul General Walter A. Adams at Hankow reported to the state department today that the airplane of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh capsized in the Yangtze river as it was being lowered from the British aircraft carrier, Hermes.

The Lindberghs fell in the river but were rescued without injury.

The Lindberghs were removed from the water by a boat lowered from the Hermes. Their plane, Adams said, was badly damaged. It was hoisted aboard the Hermes and is to be taken by the carrier to Shanghai for repairs.

Lindbergh has been keeping his plane aboard the Hermes at night.

Adams said a spring hook on the lowering crane of the Hermes jammed, causing the accident.

The version of the accident cabled by Adams to the state department differs in some respects from that received in other dispatches from Hankow, but all reports agreed that the plane was badly damaged and the Lindberghs were not injured.

The piling up of British gold and money in this country was generally believed by administration authorities to have been a primary factor in the recent British financial disorder.

HOW EASY

Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Three marriage ceremonies were necessary in Europe before Mrs. Eugene Swartz could call Sam Swartz her very own husband, but then she came to America, and it took just one stroke of a pen to get rid of him.

"First," she explained, "we were married in Brussels, during the war. Sam went to Coblenz with the Army of Occupation, and I had to marry him again because our first marriage license was written in Flemish and therefore declared illegal."

"A few weeks later, we went to Paris and had to get married a third time because the German license was called unlawful."

After that the Swartzes came to America. Things went well for a while. After that they didn't go so well. Mrs. Swartz sued for divorce.

"And about all that happened," she explained, "was that I talked a little and then the clerk signed his name and all three marriages were voided. I like America."

Navy Budget Cut Curtails Events

PLANS WITHDRAWAL OF VESSELS FROM ACTIVE SERVICE

ONLY WAY EFFICIENCY CAN BE MAINTAINED AND STAY WITHIN BOUNDS OF APPROPRIATION

Washington, Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—The navy plans to lay up approximately one-fifth of the fleet and reduce its enlisted force by several thousand men to meet President Hoover's demands for a $60,000,000 cut in naval expenditures the United Press learned today.

Under this program, some naval vessels of all classes from battleships to submarines would be withdrawn from active service and left with only caretaking crews. After a period as yet undetermined these ships would be returned to active duty and others would be laid up.

High naval officials regard the plan of restricted operations as the only way they can maintain efficiency and at the same time effect the saving asked by Mr. Hoover. The navy's enlisted personnel now numbers slightly more than 80,000 men. Officials believe this could be reduced by 10,000 partly by stopping new enlistments.

The present cost of the navy, exclusive of ship construction, is approximately $860,000 a day, or $310,000,000 per year. Curtailing operations by one-fifth would reduce this figure to $68,000 a day, a yearling or slightly more than the $60,000,000 asked by Mr. Hoover.

Bell Hop Fires at Trio After Hotel Robbery

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—Three dapper youths today held up the night clerk and a bell hop at the Francis Drake hotel and escaped with $90 while the bell hop fired on them with a revolver.

Two of the bandits entered the hotel while the third remained at the wheel of a battered grey-tan sedan. Teh pair held H. G. Otis, clerk, and Gregory Smith, bell boy, at revolver's points. The bandits took $40 from the hotel register and $50 from Smith.

As they dashed out of the lobby, Smith seized a revolver and opened fire. None of the bandits was believed hit.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—Donald Sigel, 28, Endrin, escaped from the North Dakota State penitentiary last night after having served less than a week of a year's sentence for grand larceny.

Sigel was working in the dairy barn of the penitentiary and was not seen after 8 p. m. Sigel formerly was an employe of the Soo line railroad.

A reward of $50 has been offered by Warden Turner for information leading to Sigel's recapture.

Form of Beneficent Dictatorship Sought by Group of Multimillionaires, Butler Says

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—A group of multimillionaires, seeking a form of beneficent dictatorship, are ready to give up half their fortunes to further the plan, according to Maj. Gen. Smedley Butler, U. S. M. C., retired.

Fourteen of the men who had discussed the plan are worth more than $5,000,000, he said.

A threat of revolution hangs over the country if something is not done to cure present conditions, he said.

The wealthy men propose a program of schools, road building, promotion of inventions and infant industries under an "extra governmental agency headed by a man without capitalistic or partisan ties," he said.

The virtual dictatorship would be legalized by congress.

"My idea is to put idle money to work," Butler said.

RANSOM OF ABOUT $100,000 WINS FREEDOM FOR ST. PAUL POLITICIAN

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—St. Louis gangsters were blamed by police today for the kidnapping of Leon Gleckman, wealthy St. Paul politician who returned home after the reported payment of $75,000.

Gleckman, however, denied that he had been kidnapped.

"I was fishing near Crane Lake," Gleckman said. "I'm glad to be home. Any man with three youngsters is glad to get home after he's been away a week."

Associates said that the original demand had been $200,000 for Gleckman's release.

A Minneapolis man was said to have pointed Gleckman out as a likely victim to the kidnapping ring. The men were believed by police to be the same responsible for recent kidnappings in Chicago, New York, Detroit and St. Louis.

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—Leon Gleckman, wealthy St. Paul politician who has been held by kidnapers for the past eight days, was released today.

Although the amount of the ransom was not made known, it was understood to be slightly under $100,000.

Morris Roisner, business associate of Gleckman, paid the ransom for his friend's release at 4 a. m. today and started for St. Paul with his partner, he notified Mrs. Gleckman. She was assured her husband had not been mistreated and that he was in excellent health, although shaken by his experiences.

The place where Gleckman was held was understood to be a cottage at one of the northern Minnesota or Wisconsin lakes within 150 miles of the Twin Cities.

Gleckman had been called the "brains" of the Twin City alcohol ring by prohibition agents.

Gleckman arrived at his home shortly after 7:30. He told police and newspaper men who questioned him that he had been on a fishing trip in the northern part of Minnesota. He professed to be greatly surprised at the reports that he had been held for ransom by kidnapers.

Gleckman disappeared a week ago Thursday. He was seen by his caddie as he drove up to the clubhouse for a round of golf. The caddie, Eddie Brown, went into the clubhouse for his golf clubs. When Brown returned, however, Gleckman had disappeared. The local politician was seen in the Loop the same day.

His associate in business, Roisner, went to Chicago in response to a mysterious telephone call. Mrs. Gleckman was reported to have received a letter from her husband, postmarked from Chicago saying he was well but held by kidnapers.

Roisner disappeared for several days in Chicago and for a time it was hinted that he also might have been captured by the gang holding Gleckman. Yesterday Roisner telephoned from Chicago to local friends that he had contacted with the "right people." Apparently he left for the Twin Cities to pay the ransom and then met Gleckman.

LINDBERG'S UNHURT PRIVATE FOREIGN AS PLANE CAPSIZES IN YANGTZE RIVER INTERESTS SELL STOCK HOLDINGS

FAMOUS FLIER AND WIFE FALL INTO RIVER BUT WERE RESCUED WITHOUT INJURY

Washington, Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—Consul General Walter A. Adams at Hankow reported to the state department today that the airplane of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh capsized in the Yangtze river as it was being lowered from the British aircraft carrier, Hermes.

The Lindberghs fell in the river but were rescued without injury.

The Lindberghs were removed from the water by a boat lowered from the Hermes. Their plane, Adams said, was badly damaged. It was hoisted aboard the Hermes and is to be taken by the carrier to Shanghai for repairs.

Lindbergh has been keeping his plane aboard the Hermes at night.

Adams said a spring hook on the lowering crane of the Hermes jammed, causing the accident.

The version of the accident cable by Adams to the state department differs in some respects from that received in other dispatches from Hankow, but all reports agreed that the plane was badly damaged and the Lindberghs were not injured.

Traffic Accidents Claim Second Victim

Fairbault, Minn., Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—The body of Carl J. Bolke, St. Paul, was taken to his home today. He was the second St. Paul man to die in a traffic accident in the past two days.

Bolke was driving along toward St. Paul on Highway No. 1 when his car went into a ditch south of the viaduct, four miles from Fairbault.

He was pinned under the car and rescued by passing motorists. He died enroute to the St. Lucas hospital at Fairbault.

Stanley Lauch, St. Paul, died Wednesday from injuries received in an automobile accident near here.

HOW EASY

Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—(U.P.)—Three marriage ceremonies were necessary in Europe before Mrs. Eugenie Swartz could call Sam Swartz her very own husband, but then she came to America, and it took just one stroke of a pen to get rid of him.

"First," she explained, "we were married in Brussels, during the war. Sam went to Coblenz with the Army of Occupation, and I had to marry him again because our first marriage license was written in Flemish and therefore declared illegal."

"A few weeks later, we went to Paris and had to get married a third time because the German license was called unlawful."

After that, the Swartzes came to America. Things went well for a while. After that they didn't go so well. Mrs. Swartz sued for divorce.

"And about all that happened," she explained, "was that I talked a little and then the clerk signed his name and all three marriages were voided. I like America."

Soviet Gives Factory Workers High Honors

Moscow, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Sixty-three persons, mostly ordinary factory workers, were awarded the highest national honors, the Lenin Order, or the Order of Labor, in a single day recently in recognition of their services to the Soviet.

Among them were several members of the so-called "old technical intelligentsia," indicating the government's policy of recognizing and encouraging loyal collaboration on the part of revolutionary engineers and technicians.

The most prominent individual among the 63 was Peter G. Smidovitch, one of the vice-presidents of the country, who has been especially active in work with minor nationalities, including the colonization of Jews.

Evangelist Preaches Faith to Those Ill, Prays for Afflicted

Another divine healing service was held last evening at the Full Gospel Assembly. Evangelist Louis O. Rynning took for his subject: "The All Sufficient One." He told how God had promised Abraham a son in his old age, and though circumstances made this impossible in the natural Abraham he kept his eyes on God and as a reward for his faith God blessed him with the son.

He then stated that we might likewise receive blessing in healing just by believing God even though all natural conditions opposed it. He said that God was still "the all sufficient one" and not only willing but anxious to do only good to the people of this day.

At the close of the service a number of sick and afflicted people were prayed for.

THE DUCKS FLY HIGH

Use of cannons would be more appropriate than shotguns to hunt ducks today as mallards, bluebills and teal, frightened out of their wits at the opening of the season yesterday reached for the sky for self protection.

"The ducks are certainly air-minded this season," was the chant of hunters today as they related rather sorrowfully that the ducks went higher than ever after the heavy barrage Thursday.

The season's opener was similar to an intensive offensive on the eastern front. The tenderfeet made it even more so. Nervous, excited at so many ducks in the air they blazed away at everything and anything that flew within two hundred feet from them.

The veterans complained that good duck was spoiled by the reckless shooting. Fortunately no injuries were reported in the Brainerd Lake Region.

Just a Moment, Please

Are not your eyes your best friends? How long since you had them examined thoroughly?

Of course, they are your eyes, and if you want to abuse them it's your privilege, but the cost of examination is very moderate, so why not be careful?

GOULD-GRAY CO. SPENDS $5,000 ON RENOVATIONS

IMPROVEMENTS MADE BY GOULD-GRAY CO. TO STORES NEAR COMPLETION

While one firm moved in at one of the new store locations on Laurel street, the final touches were being placed under direction of the Gould-Gray Co. at three other sites in the same building.

Improvements are completed at the Eagle Provision front, 612½ Laurel street while final touches are being put to the new store at 610 Laurel street.

Renovations were also made to the entrance of the National hotel at 512 Laurel street and further improvements are being made to the hotel proper in the line of decorations. All work is expected to be completed within a week. The total cost will aggregate in excess of $5,000.

The fronts are of mona metal with vitrolite base and non slip tile in the doorways.

The hotel entrance has a heather gray ornamental vestibule.

Soviet Gives Factory Workers High Honors

Moscow, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Sixty-three persons, mostly ordinary factory workers, were awarded the highest national honors, the Lenin Order, or the Order of Labor, in a single day recently in recognition of their services to the Soviet.

Among them were several members of the so-called "old technical intelligentsia," indicating the government's policy of recognizing and encouraging loyal collaboration on the part of pre-revolutionary engineers and technicians.

The most prominent individual among the 63 was Peter G. Smidovitch, one of the vice-presidents of the country, who has been especially active in work with minor nationalities, including the colonization of Jews.

Evangelist Preaches Faith to Those Ill, Prays for Afflicted

Another divine healing service was held last evening at the Full Gospel Assembly. Evangelist Louis O. Rynning took for his subject: "The All Sufficient One." He told how God had promised Abraham a son in his old age, and though circumstances made this impossible in the natural Abraham he kept his eyes on God and as a reward for his faith God blessed him with the son.

He then stated that we might likewise receive blessing in healing just by believing God even though all natural conditions opposed it. He said that God was still "the all sufficient one" and not only willing but anxious to do only good to the people of this day.

At the close of the service a number of sick and afflicted people were prayed for.

About thirty-five friends surprised Mrs. Louis Moilanen Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Thompson, 2024 Oak street. The afternoon was spent socially. OFFICIALS LOOK FOR PARENTS OF STRAYED YOUTH

12 YEAR OLD BOY PROTECTED IN MOORHEAD SAID HIS HOME IS HERE

A boy who gave his name as William Swanson, age as 12 years, and his home as Crow Wing county was being cared for by officials at Moorhead today while an appeal was made to county officials here to find his parents so that he can return home.

The boy said he had been staying with a lady known to him only as Aunt Tilda and that she lives about a mile north of Brainerd. He said that last year he attended a country school about a half mile north of her home and that his teachers name was Miss M. Larson.

Other information forwarded here stated that the boy had not seen his father for a couple of years and that he does not remember ever seeing his mother, nor does he know anything about her. He said his father's name is Peter Swanson.

POWERFUL BEMIDJI CREW FOE OF BRAINERD GRIDDER

LACK OF RESERVE STRENGTH HOLDS BACK LOCAL TEAM

DECIDED IMPROVEMENT SHOWN BY REGULARS DURING WEEK OF PRACTICE

Still undecided as to the starting lineup and evincing considerable concern over who they would throw into the breach should one or more regulars become incapacitated through injury, Coaches Bill Dammann and Ben Taylor today sent the Brainerd high school football through a light signal drill and dummy scrimmage as the final gesture before entertaining Bemidji's fast and powerful eleven here Saturday afternoon.

Regulars Show Improvement
Lack of an adequate reserve list is disappointing. It is something to go into spasms about but they wouldn't be a demonstration of joy. There is no doubt but what the regulars have shown decided improvement under the tutelage of Dammann and his right bower, Taylor, but somehow the machine resembles a double-barrelled shotgun one chamber of which is jammed. This example is drawn from an old saying "a team is just as good as its reserve strength." But don't shout that to anyone. The echo might carry to Bemidji.

While Chief Dammann was smoothing out an offense during the last few days, his assistant, Ben Taylor, has been busy teaching the rudiments of blocking and charging to the boys. And, they seem to have grasped the idea.

Visitors Given Edge

By virtue of last season's 12 to 0 victory and the fact that a large number of veterans have returned for another year of football, Bemidji is conceded the edge. It will not be a surprise, however, if Brainerd upsets the dope by playing Bemidji to a standstill and possibly defeat the second crew to face the local eleven this year.

To bolster the front line, observers saw Coach Dammann insert Koek into the line and giving his place in the ball carrying department to White, a wiry little lad who has shown considerable promise. Koek, a versatile performer, may be just the man Dammann is looking for to pull together the middle section of the forward wall. He has looked good in the week's workouts.

Lineup a Mystery

Although the starting lineup remains a deep dark secret, a guess as to the personnel would have the backfield composed of Gahou at quarterback, Foster at fullback and Templeton, White or Dahl at the wingbacks. With one game and another week of practice under their moloskins, this quartet is expected to show considerable more than was unleashed in the Wadena game.

An observer is more or less in a quandary as to the probable forward wall cogs. Garvey may be at center and he may not but he is believed to have the inside track although Walt or McPherson may also get it. Koek and Edstrom or Anderson will flank the pivot man while Junior Wygle and Jackson, Rubins, Coffee or McLeary are fighting for the call for a tackle berth. Swanson and Bob Wygle will again be at ends.

FIGHT RESULTS

(By United Press)
At Terre Haute, Ind.—Walter Pickard, 190, Terry Haute; knocked out Tim Charles, 190, Louisville (5); Andy Kellett, 108, Marion eightHts, Ill., and George Mulholland, 108, Indianapolis, six rounds draw.

Miss Orcutt to Meet Van Wie in Semi-finals

Toronto, Can., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Miss Maureen Orcutt of Englewood, N. J., defending champion, will meet Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, in the feature semi-final match of the Canadian women's golf championship today.

In the other match Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser of Ottawa, will engage Miss Marjorie Kirkham of Montreal. Mrs. Fraser provided the tournament with its biggest upset yesterday when she eliminated Miss Enid Wilson, English champion, 1-7.

Miss Orcutt, who is favored to retain her title, eliminated Miss Marion Hollins of Santa Cruz, Calif., 5 and 4, to reach the semi-final bracket, and Miss Van Wie defeated Mrs. O. Hill of Kansas City, 2 and 1. Miss Kirkham advanced with a 4 and 3 victory over Miss Marjorie Kerr, of England.

Platte Lake League to Attend Zone Rally

London, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Sir Thomas Lipton was suffering from a severe chill today at his home, Osidge, Southgate, Middlesex.

His condition was regarded as serious. Sir Thomas was attended by two surgeons, Sir John Thomson Walker and Dr. Cecil Rowntree, and two physicians, Sir James Purves-Stewart and Dr. G. A. Shepherd.

Platte Lake League to Attend Zone Rally

Platte Lake: There will be no services at the Platte Lake church Sunday, Oct. 4, as the pastor and family and a number of the local Luther League members will attend the Lake Land Luther League Zone Rally at Duluth.

The president of the Minnesota district of the American Lutheran church, the Rev. E. Welke, of St. Paul, will speak at the morning service, and the new pastor of the church in which the meeting will be held, Rev. Engelhardt, will deliver an address to the leagueurs in connection with the business session in the afternoon.

A week ago Sunday the Louis Magnuson family entertained company from Kerkhoven, Minn., Pete Larsons, formerly of Cloquet.

The annual Mission Festival held at the Platte Lake church was another inspirational and blessed event for all present.

The following members and friends from this community attended the Mission Festival at Hillman Sunday: George Henningsons, Paul Henningsons, Ole Larsons, Simon Fredericksens, J. J. Johnsons, Fred A. Seglers, Mrs. A. Barto, Mrs. A. Sherwood and son, Lawrence, and Everett Christianson.

The Rev. Prof. W. Schmidt, president of the St. Paul Luther College, delivered the sermons for the morning and afternoon services. "We sure were glad to be present to hear these wonderful messages," was the unanimous comment.

The annual church sale given and arranged by the ladies of the Platte Lake church will be held in a week from Friday, October 9. It is hoped that again many will be present.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Both teams had a game to their credit today as the Rochester and St. Paul squads rested in their contest for the Little World Series baseball championship.

The champions of the International League evened the count yesterday when George Fisher, who is sheriff at Avon, Minn., when his baseball duties are done, hit a single in the sixth inning to score Pepper and Puccinelli. That tied the score at 2 and 2. Wilson singled a few minutes later to score Fisher and Bentley.

Just to add to the count, Toporec scored on a long fly after being walked in the ninth.

Roettger scored in the second and pitcher John Murphy hit a homer in the fifth for the Saints' only tallies.

The line score:

Rochester 000 004 001—5 9 0

St. Paul 010 010 000—2 6 1

Bell and Florence; Murphy, Prudhomme, Harris and Snyder.

GOPHER ELEVEN MAY PLAY CHARITY GAME AFTER SEASON

CRISLER PREFERS GAME WITH EITHER WISCONSIN OR ILLINOIS

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—A post season game for charity between the University of Minnesota football team and another conference team became a probability today with the announcement that members of the football squad have voted to play such a game.

Officials at the university, including President Loftus D. Coffman and Coach Herbert Crisler, said they were in favor of the game if a charity emergency exists.

The possibility that Big Ten teams will play charity games arose with the action of the western conference officials in suspending for one year the regulations prohibiting such contests.

Crisler said that he would prefer to play the University of Wisconsin in a post season game, while others chose Illinois.

GAME WARDEN REIN- STATED

Grand Rapids, Minn., Oct. 1.—(UP)—Passing thousands of hunters hurrying to northern Minnesota hunting spots, the state conservation commission today ordered the reinstatement of a former game warden in the Walker-Casa Lake area.

The order authorizing reinstatement of H. T. Wright, Cass Lake, was sent to W. D. Stewart, state game and fish commissioner. Wright will serve during the time of the hunting season.

Rail Officials Agree on Realignment of Lines

New York, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Representatives of the leading eastern railroads today reached an agreement for realignment of eastern roads into four major trunk line systems.

An announcement made after a meeting today by the rail heads follows: "The presidents of the Pennsylvania, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, and Chesapeake and Ohio-Nickel Plate systems, after many conferences, the four systems have reached an agreement to be signed and forwarded to the Interstate Commerce commission recommending a modification of the commission's plan for grouping the railroads in the eastern district into four systems."

Freed on $5,000 Bond Pending Hearing Sat.

Williston, N. D., Oct. 1.—(UP)—Mrs. Gunda Hutton, Ray, was free today on $5,000 bond pending a hearing Saturday of first degree manslaughter charges against her in connection with the death of Hazel Herriott, 22, Ray, August 2.

A coroner's inquest made at the request of citizens of Ray determined that Miss Herriott died as the result of an illegal operation.

Indict 42 as Result of Fatal Mine Riot

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Forty-two persons, including two women were indicted today on riot charges in connection with the first fatal disorder in the western Pennsylvania bituminous strike, in Wildwood, Pa., last June 22.

Those indicted included Thomas Meyerscough, organizer of the National Miners union, alleged to have led the strikers. No action has been taken against Meyerscough and Deputy Sheriff Herbert Reel, who were held for manslaughter by a coroner's jury in connection with the disorder.

Solve California's Biggest Bank Robbery

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—(UP)—California's biggest bank robbery had been solved today with the arrest of two asserted leaders of the bandit gang which secured $52,000 in the holdup of the Belvedere Gardens branch, Security-First National Bank four weeks ago, and recovery of $23,113.

One of the suspects, Emmett Perkins, 22, alias Jack Bradley, will be charged with the murder of Nathan Black, crippled bookkeeper, in a $10,000 holdup last July, police said.

The other suspect was Roy Gant, 24. Both men were paroled ex-convicts, according to Detective Lieutenant Jack Mo'ina.

BUT OUTLOOK IS NOT VERY ROSY WITH EARNSHAW ON HILL

OPENING GAME SIMPLY A REPE- TION OF LAST YEAR, AL SIMMONS' HITTING

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—(UP)—It's the same old six and seven with the Philadelphia Athletics, mighty monarchs of the baseball world. They make hits count for runs. That's the simple formula they have for winning ball games.

If Al Simmons doesn't supply the punch, Jimmy Foxx does, and if neither comes through, well, Mickey Cochrane is poison in a pinch.

In the opening game of the 1931 world series it was Simmons, Foxx, and Grove. Simmons and Foxx did the hitting and Grove the pitching.

For the three straight years in succession the Athletics have been outbait in the opening game of the world series, and pulled through to victory. The St. Louis Cardinals made 12 hits off Grove in the first game, but the A's, with only 11 hits, grabbed off the all-important first game, 6-2.

There never was a ball club superior to Connie Mack's three-time American league champions and twice world title-holders in making the most of its opportunities. It is a point of debate about how the present A's stack up against the White Sox of 1915-16 and the Yankees of 1927-28 and other great ball clubs, but there never was a baseball machine that out-classed the present Philadelphia team in a coming through in a pinch.

Give the A's 50 cents worth of ball playing and they'll make it go as far as any National league team with a dollar's worth of playing.

Paul Derringer, Card's rookie right-hander, wasn't outpitched by Grove over the 7 innings stretch he was on the mound. Both pitchers allowed 11 hits during this period, but Grove was invincible in the crucial moments, while Derringer faltered.

The Cards got plenty of hits, enough to win any ordinary ball game, but they wasted their opportunities, a habit which National league teams have cultivated the past five years.

When a hit would have sent Grove staggering back on his heels, the Cards folded up. It did not take any great pitching to stop them, either. Grove pitched only an ordinary game, and was in trouble in at least four innings, but he gamely pulled through under fire.

A year ago the A's won the opener, 5-2, on five hits, and in 1929 they took the first game from the Cubs, 3-1, on six hits. How can you beat a team like that? You can outbait them but you can't outscore them.

With George Earnshaw, big right-hander who beat the Cards twice last year, ready to take the firing line today, the hopes of the National leagues champions were far from rosy.

It was Wild Bill Hallahan who stopped the A's after they had won two straight last year, and the Cards' chances of halting the rush of the Mackmen was once more squarely up to the St. Louis southpaw.

CHAPTER LIX

YOU'RE going upstairs and pack. And coming to Jenny's with me—tonight!"

"No, Larry—please, it's awfully late of Jenny to want me, but I can't."

"You're coming, if I have to make a scene...right here. I take no chances of your checking out and going somewhere else before tomorrow. And—Lorraine's not at Westwood. He's in the Adirondacks. He went to see McEwan and is staying at Wynne's camp up there indefinitely."

"You won't see him. Just come out with me for a few days—hang your secretarial course—and get straightened out. Jenny has been frantic about you, and so has Mrs. Lorraine. You owe it to her, Mary Lou, to see her again. I only just once. I suppose I understand why you won't off like that; I don't much blame you, but I do feel that Mrs. Lorraine is deeply hurt and terribly worried."

"So Alone"

"I'll come, Larry," agreed Mary Lou, wretchedly. The tears were pouring unchecked down the small face. She had been so unhappy. The days in New York, strange, lonely, filled with heartbreak. The feeling herself a stranger, threatened, somehow, on all sides. The cold practicality of the business school. The longing for Lorraine. The imagination that wouldn't let her rest, picturing Lorraine and Delight, happy, reunited.

Larry took out a large handkerchief, something like a sheet, and mopped her face for her in a brotherly fashion. He then helped her to her feet and escorted her to the elevator and took up his position there, waiting determinedly like a detective, until she should come down again. He was taking no chance whatever. When she reappeared he accompanied her to the desk, watched her check out, and, taking her arm, led her to the door, the street, a taxi, the station, and a train for Westmill.

In the train he talked to her severely.

"Why the devil did you run away?" he demanded.

"I couldn't face it—"

"The situation, or Lorraine?"

"Lorraine," she admitted, finally. "It was all so confusing and unexpected. But I had known for ages that I had to get away."

"You didn't run to save yourself," said Larry: "you ran to save him. It was unnecessary. If you had stayed you might have learned that Delight Harford is really Mrs. Somebody Else, and that Lorraine didn't want her, never would want her—"

"How was I to know?" asked Mary Lou, reasonably, watching the black landscape slide by, watching the lights of homes shine through the darkness.

"You couldn't know, of course. You and Lorraine were a precious pair of idealistic babies." Larry grumbled, "you with your desire to see justice done and Lorraine with his idiotic proposal to De-

Saturday's Big Ten Schedules

Notre Dame at Indiana. Nebraska at Northwestern. Mt. Pleasant and Ypsilanti Normal at Michigan.

Pittsburgh at Iowa. Bradley and North Dakota Aggies at Wisconsin.

Cincinnati U. at Ohio State. Oklahoma Aggies at Minnesota.

St. Louis U. at Illinois. Western Reserve and Coe at Purdue.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(UP)—With Notre Dame beginning its first season in many years without the aid of Knute Rockne, and Northwestern pointing toward the national championship, the opening of the western conference annual football race tomorrow has attracted nation-wide interest.

All of the Big Ten teams, except Chicago, are scheduled for action, but most of the games are early season set-ups. Minnesota and Iowa, however, meet stiff competition in Oklahoma A. & M. and Pittsburgh respectively.

Chief interest will center at Bloomington, Ind., where Notre Dame meets Indiana and at Evanston, where Northwestern opens its season against the powerful Nebraska Cornhuskers.

The Hoosiers, a traditional "jinx" for the South Bend Irish, are expected to prove a severe test for the Notre Dame squad in its attempt to "carry on for Rockne" under the tutelage of Heartley Anderson and Jesse Harper.

In Nebraska, the Northwestern team has a strong foe. The game was carded principally to prepare the purple for its contest next week against Notre Dame and for a hard conference schedule.

The Iowa Hawkeyes, crippled by injuries, are not expected to furnish dangerous opposition to Pittsburgh but Coach Ingwersen was confident his squad would make a staunch bid for its former place in the football world.

Expecting tough competition from Oklahoma A. & M., Coach Fritz Crisler put the Minnesota team through long defensive workouts this week. Jack Manders and Burdick are expected to perform most of the ball carrying.

The Michigan Wolverines open with a doubleheader against Mt. Pleasant and Ypsilanti and are expected to be victorious, although last year Ypsilanti held Kipke's men to a 7 to 0 score.

Purdue, attempting to regain the laurels won in 1929, will meet Western Reserve and Coe college with two brilliant backfield combinations ready for service.

Illinois went through a light practice today stressing defensive tactics against the forward passing attack which St. Louis university is reported planning to use in the opener tomorrow.

Ohio may be handicapped by the absence of Sid Gillman and Joe Bens when it meets Cincinnati. Both were injured this week.

The Wisconsin Badgers do not expect to find any great opposition in their games with Bradley and North Dakota Aggies.

Chicago university is resting this week in preparation for its game with Michigan next Saturday.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS IS FOE; HAMLINE FRESHMEN TO MEET EVELETH

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Two St. Paul state college football teams will meet tonight from out of town tonight and at least one of the games will have a definite bearing on the state conference championship.

St. Thomas college will defend its last year's unbeaten record against Gustavus Adolphus college of St. Peter at St. Thomas field. The veteran Tommies are fresh from a victory over the powerful Moorhead State Teachers college eleven but are not expected to have as easy going against the large and strong Gusties this year as they did last year.

A rejuvenated Hamline university team will send its freshman team against the Eveleth Junior college team in the other game. The varsity team will meet St. John's at Collegeville tomorrow.

Naval Academy to Charge for Games

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 2.—(UP)—The Naval academy, seeking to eliminate a deficit in its athletic fund, today inaugurated a new policy of charging admission to all football games played here.

The new ruling, announced by Lt. Comdr. L. D. McCormick, aide to the superintendent, will take effect after Navy's opening game here Saturday with William and Mary college.

CHAPTER LIX

YOU'RE going upstairs and pack. And coming to Jenny's with me—tonight!"

"No, Larry—please, it's awfully late of Jenny to want me, but I can't."

"You're coming, if I have to make a scene...right here. I take no chances of your checking out and going somewhere else before tomorrow. And—Lorraine's not at Westwood. He's in the Adirondacks. He went to see McEwan and is staying at Wynne's camp up there indefinitely."

"You won't see him. Just come out with me for a few days—hang your secretarial course—and get straightened out. Jenny has been frantic about you, and so has Mrs. Lorraine. You owe it to her, Mary Lou, to see her again. I only just once. I suppose I understand why you won't off like that; I don't much blame you, but I do feel that Mrs. Lorraine is deeply hurt and terribly worried."

"So Alone"

"I'll come, Larry," agreed Mary Lou, wretchedly. The tears were pouring unchecked down the small face. She had been so unhappy. The days in New York, strange, lonely, filled with heartbreak. The feeling herself a stranger, threatened, somehow, on all sides. The cold practicality of the business school. The longing for Lorraine. The imagination that wouldn't let her rest, picturing Lorraine and Delight, happy, reunited.

Larry took out a large handkerchief, something like a sheet, and mopped her face for her in a brotherly fashion. He then helped her to her feet and escorted her to the elevator and took up his position there, waiting determinedly like a detective, until she should come down again. He was taking no chance whatever. When she reappeared he accompanied her to the desk, watched her check out, and, taking her arm, led her to the door, the street, a taxi, the station, and a train for Westmill.

In the train he talked to her severely.

"Why the devil did you run away?" he demanded.

"I couldn't face it—"

"The situation, or Lorraine?"

"Lorraine," she admitted, finally. "It was all so confusing and unexpected. But I had known for ages that I had to get away."

"You didn't run to save yourself," said Larry: "you ran to save him. It was unnecessary. If you had stayed you might have learned that Delight Harford is really Mrs. Somebody Else, and that Lorraine didn't want her, never would want her—"

"How was I to know?" asked Mary Lou, reasonably, watching the black landscape slide by, watching the lights of homes shine through the darkness.

"You couldn't know, of course. You and Lorraine were a precious pair of idealistic babies." Larry grumbled, "you with your desire to see justice done and Lorraine with his idiotic proposal to De-

Mary Lou laughed. The color was back in her cheeks, she looked restless, happier. Loneliness is a wasting illness, and if Jenny and Larry were not cures, they were, at least, palliatives.

"But I can't stay," she went on. "I have to get back and go on with that course. Nor could I stay on and—keep on avoiding Larry."

"Well, he isn't here and we won't tell him that you are, and you know he never comes over except on special occasions. We've always had to run after him," Jenny soothed her. "You skip off to your room and get some sleep. I'm telephoning Aunt Margaret in the morning."

So, in the morning, Margaret Lorraine came over and saw Mary Lou, alone, in a corner of the big drawing room where she waited for her, a small, rather forlorn she heard them talking to the servant who opened it, and caught Mary Lou in her strong young arms.

"You found her; you brought her back!" she shrieked to Larry and embraced him shamelessly while still holding on to her recovered friend. Her mother and father strolled into the hall to see what it was all about. They had been told; they knew the entire story, and the way in which they understood it, figuratively and matter-of-factly took Mary Lou to their hearts was very pleasant for the rest of the reception committee to view.

That night, curled up on Jenny's bed, Mary Lou filled in the gaps, supplied the missing details and ended, anxiously:

"So I came out. What is one to do when Larry sets his mind on anything?"

"Marry him; it's the quickest way to deflate his egotism," answered Jenny promptly, "but, unfortunately, I have a monopoly of that system."

figure, but with the scarlet flags of courage flying in her cheeks and her eyes bright and clear. Margaret went swiftly to her and took her in her arms.

"I-I thought you'd be—furious with me," gasped Mary Lou, "but I couldn't help it, Lady Margaret. It all seemed so unfair—to her—to Lorry. I had to try to clear things up, but you understand I never thought she would come out to Westwood. I planned to talk to you and beg you to see her and then to tell Lorry the truth. That was all."

"I know. No, I'm not furious. I was, for a few minutes," Margaret smiled, "but not any more. And it all worked out for the best."

She added hastily: "But I'd like you to know, Mary Lou, that even before we knew the facts, even before everything was cleared up, I'd not only forgiven you, I'd been won over to your standard, and I was grateful."

POWERFUL BEMIDJI CREW FOE OF BRAINERD GRIDDER

LACK OF RESERVE STRENGTH HOLDS BACK LOCAL TEAM

DECIDED IMPROVEMENT SHOWN BY REGULARS DURING WEEK OF PRACTICE

Still undecided as to the starting lineup and evincing considerable concern over who they would throw into the breach should one or more regulars become incapacitated through injury, Coaches Bill Dammann and Ben Taylor today sent the Brainerd high school football through a light signal drill and dummy scrimmage as the final gesture before entertaining Bemidji's fast and powerful eleven here Saturday afternoon.

Regulars Show Improvement
Lack of an adequate reserve list is disappointing. It is something to go into spasms about but they wouldn't be a demonstration of joy. There is no doubt but what the regulars have shown decided improvement under the tutelage of Dammann and his right bower, Taylor, but somehow the machine resembles a double-barrelled shotgun one chamber of which is jammed. This example is drawn from an old saying "a team is just as good as its reserve strength." But don't shout that to anyone. The echo might carry to Bemidji.

While Chief Dammann was smoothing out an offense during the last few days, his assistant, Ben Taylor, has been busy teaching the rudiments of blocking and charging to the boys. And, they seem to have grasped the idea.

Visitors Given Edge
By virtue of last season's 12 to 0 victory and the fact that a large number of veterans have returned for another year of football, Bemidji is conceded the edge. It will not be a surprise, however, if Brainerd upsets the hope by playing Bemidji to a standstill and possibly defeat the second crew to face the local eleven this year.

To bolster the front line, observers saw Coach Dammann insert Koek into the line and giving his place in the ball carrying department to White. A wiry little lad who has shown considerable promise. Koek, a versatile performer, may be just the man Dammann is looking for to pull together the middle section of the forward wall. He has looked good in the week's workouts.

Lineup a Mystery
Although the starting lineup remains a deep dark secret, a guess as to the personnel would have the backfield composed of Gabiau at quarterback, Foster at fullback and Templeton, White or Dahl at the wingbacks. With one game and another week of practice under their moleskins, this quartet is expected to show considerable more than was unleashed in the Wadena game.

An observer is more or less in a quandary as to the probable forward wall cogs. Garvey may be at center and he may not but he is believed to have the inside track although Walt or McPherson may also get it. Koek and Edstrom or Anderson will flank the pivot man while Jimmy Wyle and Jackson, Rubins, Coffee or McLeerie are fighting for the call for a tackle berth. Swanson and Bob Wyle will again be at ends.

What kind of opposition Bemidji will have to offer can best be gleaned from a fan who has seen that team in action this year. He said: It is the sweetest looking high school outfit I have seen in some time. They will give Brainerd plenty to think about."

Bemidji always has a good team but a scrappy and fighting Brainerd eleven imbued with a will to win and the knowledge to turn the trick, will furnish fans with plenty entertainment for one Saturday afternoon.

Cubs Defeat Sox to Even City Series

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Action in the city series shifted today from Wrigley field, home of the Cubs, to Comiskey park, home grounds of the Chicago White Sox, as the two clubs met in the third game of their battle for the city championship.

Each club has won one game each, and Managers Hornsby of the Cubs and Donie Bush of the Sox planned on sending their ace pitchers to the mound. Bob Smith was named to hurl for the north-siders. Ted Lyons was selected to pitch for the Sox.

The Cubs evened the series Thursday when Guy Bush downed Vic Fraser, 1-0, in a pitchers' battle. The winning tally came in the ninth inning when Cuyler doubled, his first hit of the series, and scored when Vince Barton singled with two out. Bush was touched for six hits, while Fraser yielded five.

The Sox won the opening game Wednesday, 9 to 0, behind the effective pitching of Red Faber. Only 26,000 fans turned out for the two games, despite perfect baseball weather.

Toronto, Can., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Miss Maureen Orcutt of Englewood, N. J., defending champion, will meet Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, in the feature semi-final match of the Canadian women's golf championship today.

In the other match Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser of Ottawa, will engage Miss Marjorie Kirkham of Montreal. Mrs. Fraser provided the tournament with its biggest upset yesterday when she eliminated Miss Enid Wilson, English champion, 1-7.

Miss Orcutt, who is favored to retain her title, eliminated Miss Marion Hollins of Santa Cruz, Calif., 5 and 4, to reach the semi-final bracket, and Miss Van Wie defeated Mrs. O. Hill of Kansas City, 2 and 1. Miss Kirkham advanced with a 4 and 3 victory over Miss Marjorie Kerr, of England.

C.-I. Gridders Groomed for Duluth Cathedral Invasion, October 10

With two Saturdays without games, Crosby-Ironton high school will resume its grid schedule by entertaining Duluth a Cathedral, Oct. 10.

Fergus Falls disappointed the range boys last week by calling off their scheduled game. The C.-I. team will be idle tomorrow.

London, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Sir Thomas Lipton was suffering from a severe chill today at his home, Osidge, South-Sea, Middlesex.

His condition was regarded as serious.

Sir Thomas was attended by two surgeons, Sir John Thomson Walker and Dr. Cecil Rowntree, and two physicians, Sir James Purves-Stewart and Dr. G. A. Shepherd.

It was announced he had been ill about 10 days, probably from a chill caught while motoring.

Platte Lake League to Attend Zone Rally

Platte Lake: There will be no services at the Platte Lake church Sunday, Oct. 4, as the pastor and family and a number of the local Luther League members will attend the Lake Land Luther League Zone Rally at Duluth. The president of the Minnesota district of the American Lutheran church, the Rev. E. Welke, of St. Paul, will speak at the morning service, and the new pastor of the church in which the meeting will be held, Rev. Engelhardt, will deliver an address to the league members in connection with the business session in the afternoon.

A week ago Sunday the Louis Magnus family entertained company from Kerkhove, Minn., Pete Larsons, formerly of Cloquet.

The annual Mission Festival held at the Platte Lake church was another inspirational and blessed event for all present.

The following members and friends from this community attended the Mission Festival at Hillman Sunday: George Henningsons, Paul Henningsons, Ole Larsons, Simon Frederiksen, J. J. Johnsons, Fred A. Seglers, Mrs. A. Barto, Mrs. A. Sherwood and son, Lawrence, and Everett Christianson. The Rev. Prof. W. Schmidt, president of the St. Paul Luther College, delivered the sermons for the morning and afternoon services. "We sure were glad to be present to hear these wonderful messages," was the unanimous comment.

The annual church sale given and arranged by the ladies of the Platte Lake church will be held in a week from Friday, October 9. It is hoped that again many will be present.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Both teams had a game to their credit today as the Rochester and St. Paul squads rested in their contest for the Little World Series baseball championship.

The champions of the International league evened the count yesterday when George Fisher, who is sheriff at Avon, Minn., when his baseball duties are done, hit a single in the sixth inning to score Pepper and Pucinelli. That tied the score at 2 and 2. Wilson singled a few minutes later to score Fisher and Bentley.

Just to add to the count, Toporcer scored on a long fly after being walked in the ninth.

Roettger scored in the second and pitcher John Murphy hit a homer in the fifth for the Saints' only tallies.

The line score:

Rochester	000	004	001	—5	9	0
St. Paul	010	010	000	—2	6	1

GOPHER ELEVEN MAY PLAY CHARITY GAME AFTER SEASON

CRISLER PREFERS GAME WITH EITHER WISCONSIN OR ILLINOIS

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 2.—(UP)—A post season game for charity between the University of Minnesota football team and another conference team became a probability today with the announcement that members of the football squad have voted to play such a game.

Officials at the university, including President Loftus D. Coffman and Coach Herbert Crisler, said they were in favor of the game if a charity emergency exists.

The possibility that Big Ten teams will play charity games arose with the action of the western conference officials in suspending for one year the regulations prohibiting such contests.

Crisler said that he would prefer to play the University of Wisconsin in a post season game, while others chose Illinois.

GAME WARDEN REIN- STATED

Grand Rapids, Minn., Oct. 1.—(UP)—Passing thousands of hunters hurrying to northern Minnesota hunting spots, the state conservation commission today ordered the reinstatement of a former game warden in the Walker-Cass Lake area.

The order authorizing reinstatement of H. T. Wright, Cass Lake was sent to W. D. Stewart, state game and fish commissioner. Wright will serve during the time of the hunting season.

Rail Officials Agree on Realignment of Lines

New York, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Representatives of the leading eastern railroads today reached an agreement for realignment of eastern roads into four major trunk line systems.

"The presidents of the Pennsylvania, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, and Chesapeake and Ohio-Nickel Plate systems, after many conferences, the four systems have reached an agreement to be signed and forwarded to the Interstate Commerce commission recommending a modification of the commission's plan for grouping the railroads in the eastern district into four systems."

BUT OUTLOOK IS NOT VERY ROSY WITH EARNSHAW ON HILL

OPENING GAME SIMPLY A REPE- TION OF LAST YEAR, AL SIMMONS' HITTING

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—(UP)—It's the same old six and seven with the Philadelphia Athletics, mighty monarchs of the baseball world. They make hits count for runs. That's the simple formula they have for winning ball games.

If Al Simmons doesn't supply the punch, Jimmy Fox does, and if neither comes through, well, Mickey Cochrane is poison in a pinch.

In the opening game of the 1931 world series it was Simmons, Fox, and Grove. Simmons and Fox did the hitting and Grove the pitching.

For the three straight years in succession the Athletics have been out in the opening game of the world series, and pulled through to victory. The St. Louis Cardinals made 12 hits off Grove in the first game, but the A's, with only 11 hits, grabbed off the all-important first game, 6-2.

There never was a ball club superior to Connie Mack's three-time American league champions and twice world title-holders in making the most of its opportunities. It is a point of debate about how the present A's stack up against the White Sox of 1915-16 and the Yankees of 1927-28 and other great ball clubs, but there never was a baseball machine that out-classed the present Philadelphia team in a coming through in a pinch.

Give the A's 50 cents worth of ball playing and they'll make it go as far as any National league team with a dollar's worth of playing.

Paul Derringer, Card's rookie right-hander, wasn't outpitched by Grove over the 7 innings stretch he was on the mound. Both pitchers allowed 11 hits during this period, but Grove was invincible in the crucial moments, while Derringer faltered.

The Cards got plenty of hits, enough to win any ordinary ball game, but they wasted their opportunities, a habit which National league teams have cultivated the past five years.

When a hit would have sent Grove staggering back on his heels, the Cards folded up. It did not take any great pitching to stop them, either. Grove pitched only an ordinary game, and was in trouble in at least four innings, but he gamely pulled through under fire.

A year ago the A's won the opener, 5-2, on five hits, and in 1929 they took the first game from the Cubs, 3-1, on six hits. How can you beat a team like that? You can outpitch them but you can't outscore them.

With George Earnshaw, big right-hander who beat the Cards twice last year, ready to take the firing line today, the hopes of the National leagues champions were far from rosy.

It was Wild Bill Hallahan who stopped the A's after they had won two straight last year, and the Cards' chances of halting the rush of the Mackmen was once more squarely up to the St. Louis southpaw.

Indict 42 as Result of Fatal Mine Riot

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Forty-two persons, including two women were indicted today on riot charges in connection with the first fatal disorder in the western Pennsylvania bituminous strike, in Wildwood, Pa., last June 22.

Those indicted included Thomas Meyerscough, organizer of the National Miners union, alleged to have led the strikers. No action has been taken against Meyerscough and Deputy Sheriff Herbert Reel, who were held for manslaughter by a coroner's jury in connection with the disorder.

Solve California's Biggest Bank Robbery

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—(UP)—California's biggest bank robbery had been solved today with the arrest of two asserted leaders of the bandit gang which secured $52,000 in the holdup of the Belvedere Gardens branch, Security-First National Bank four weeks ago, and recovery of $23,113.

One of the suspects, Emmett Perkins, 22, alias Jack Bradley, will be charged with the murder of Nathan Black, crippled bookkeeper, in a $10,000 holdup last July, police said.

The other suspect was Roy Gant, 24. Both men were paroled ex-convicts, according to Detective Lieutenant Jack Molins.

Notre Dame, Northwestern to Undergo Big Test Saturday

Saturday's Big Ten Schedules
Notre Dame at Indiana.
Nebraska at Northwestern.
Mt. Pleasant and Ypsilanti Normal at Michigan.
Pittsburgh at Iowa.
Bradley and North Dakota Aggies at Wisconsin.
Cincinnati U. at Ohio State.
Oklahoma Aggies at Minnesota.
St. Louis U. at Illinois.
Western Reserve and Coe at Purdue.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(UP)—With Notre Dame beginning its first season in many years without the aid of Knute Rockne, and Northwestern pointing toward the national championship, the opening of the western conference annual football race tomorrow has attracted nation-wide interest.

All of the Big Ten teams, except Chicago, are scheduled for action, but most of the games are early season set-ups. Minnesota and Iowa, however, meet stiff competition in Oklahoma A. & M. and Pittsburgh respectively.

Chief interest will center at Bloomington, Ind., where Notre Dame meets Indiana and at Evanston, where Northwestern opens its season against the powerful Nebraska Cornhuskers.

The Hoosiers, a traditional "jinx" for the South Bend Irish, are expected to prove a severe test for the Notre Dame squad in its attempt to "carry on for Rockne" under the tutelage of Hentley Anderson and Jesse Harper. In Nebraska, the Northwestern team has a strong foe. The game was carded principally to prepare the purple for its contest next week against Notre Dame and for a hard conference schedule.

The Iowa Hawkeyes, crippled by injuries, are not expected to furnish dangerous opposition to Pittsburgh but Coach Ingwerson was confident his squad would make a staunch bid for its former place in the football world.

Expecting tough competition from Oklahoma A. & M., Coach Fritz Crisler put the Minnesota team through long defensive workouts this week. Jack Manders and Burdick are expected to perform most of the ball carrying.

The Michigan Wolverines open with a doubleheader against Mt. Pleasant and Ypsilanti and are expected to be victorious, although last year Ypsilanti held Kipke's men to a 7 to 0 score.

Purdue, attempting to regain the laurels won in 1929, will meet Western Reserve and Coe college with two brilliant backfield combinations ready for service.

Illinois went through a light practice today stressing defensive tactics against the forward passing attack which St. Louis university is reported planning to use in the opener tomorrow.

Ohio may be handicapped by the absence of Sid Gillman and Joe Bens when it meets Cincinnati. Both were injured this week.

The Wisconsin Badgers do not expect to find any great opposition in their games with Bradley and North Dakota Aggies.

Chicago university is resting this week in preparation for its game with Michigan next Saturday.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS IS FOE; HAMLINE FRESHMEN TO MEET EVELETH

St. Paul, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Two St. Paul state college football teams will meet tonight from out of town tonight and at least one of the games will have a definite bearing on the state conference championship.

St. Thomas college will defend its last year's unbeaten record against Gustavus Adolphus college of St. Peter at St. Thomas field. The veteran Tommies are fresh from a victory over the powerful Moorhead State Teachers college eleven but are not expected to have as easy going against the large and strong Gusties this year as they did last year.

A rejuvenated Hamline university team will send its freshman team against the Eveleth Junior college team in the other game. The varsity team will meet St. John's at Collegeville tomorrow.

"He did. But, as she said, she had a previous engagement," laughed Larry.

Under an Obligation

Mary Lou said, soberly: "He must have cared."

"He did not care. He felt under an obligation, that's all. You know him well enough to know that's just what he would do."

"Yes." She was silent, staring out into the night, not as sure as Larry that Lorraine did not "care."

At the station they picked up a taxi and drove out to the Wynnes' where they found Jenny reading six novels at once and trying to make up her mind to go to bed early for the first time in several years. She rushed to the door as

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1931

Political Preparations--

What promises to be a red hot campaign is now in the offing. Republicans will quietly nominate Herbert Hoover as their candidate and he must win or lose on the record of his white house occupancy. That he and the republican party will be vociferously blamed for all the evil things that have come to pass during his tenure of office is certain. That conditions are worse in other parts of the world will have no deterrent effect on the noise makers and blame fixers of the opposition party, the fact that England has free trade and the dole will not be mentioned, Germany's alleged distress will be minimized. Republicans will be confronted with plenty of trouble.

Democrats will have their chief trouble in the preliminaries determining who shall be their standard bearer. After the nomination is made their lines must be formed to face the political foe. Friends of Gov. Roosevelt, who have been congratulating themselves in anticipation of an easy and early victory in securing his nomination, are beginning to realize that other men in the party, probably in the belief that there is a good chance for victory in the general election, propose to wage a strenuous fight for the nomination. Jim Reed, of Missouri, coyly admits that he would like to carry the support of his home state to the convention, Arkansas will present Senator Robinson for consideration, Ritchie, of Maryland, will be in the running, the shadow of Al Smith hovers over everything and a host of other dark horses will show up. With enmities engendered by a sharp contest the presidential contest promises to be a real horse race.

Try to Punish Minnesota--

Nearly all states have some strange laws, placed there to cover some specific purpose at the time the law was created or to please the whim of some legislator. Pennsylvania is seeking to punish Minnesota because the latter urges upon its citizens the use of products available within the state, a position which seems to affect the equilibrium of the Keystone state authorities.

Within our confines we have a wealth of building stone of superior quality, but Pennsylvania objects to our use of this splendid building material if it deprives them of a market for similar material to be found in Pennsylvania. The attorney general has gone so far as to warn intending purchasers that if goods or materials are to be paid for out of state funds they must not be bought in Minnesota. A very foolish position for the authorities of one state to take and one which cannot be maintained by Pennsylvania.

The Keystone state has been the particular beneficiary of a protective tariff and it is possible that its citizens have grown so strong in their demands against competing with other nations that they now believe they are the favored folks who should also be absolved from meeting prices at the hands of dealers in other states. Their assumption is so ridiculous that it cannot but injure its own citizens if persisted in.

Highway construction and maintenance has become one of the major operations of the country, but only a few years ago any attempt to spend public moneys on road building in a worth while way was frowned upon. Formerly opposition was united in decrying the commissioners who availed themselves of the advice of a competent engineer, neighboring citizens declaring themselves fully able to determine where and at what depth culverts, bridges and ditches should be placed. Straightening of roads was an unheard of proceeding and cutting hills and making fills was taboo. Ten years has brought a decided change in the public attitude toward road improvements of all kinds.

Minneapolis papers are carrying columns regarding the kidnapping of Leon Gleckman, said to have been the brains of those who manipulated the main line booze machine of the twin cities. Gleckman is said to be a henchman of Capone, with a fortune accumulated from his activities, but some of the smaller fry seem to want a strangle hold on a part of the Gleckman profits. Law enforcement against kidnapping seems to be almost a dead law for seldom have the criminals been convicted, though they have demanded and received huge fortunes from wealthy men whom they have abducted.

Looks as if Gov. Murray, of Oklahoma, is taking the proposal of his friends seriously when they name him a candidate for the presidency. He bobs up here and there in various sections of the country, always condemning the politician, but anxiously putting his own views on public matters before any group he can induce to listen. Sunday he has a hook-up with the Henry Field radio station at Shenandoah, Iowa, over which he hopes to gain an acquaintance with thousands of voters. Don't fool yourself, Bill, into thinking you are not a candidate—and a mighty willing one, too.

Men who are attempting to raise the price of corn and hold it at 60 cents per bushel should have no difficulty whatever in accomplishing their object if their own words are to be credited. They claim the corn crop of 1931 is 300,000,000 bushels below normal and that the Argentine surplus is depleted. With such conditions prevailing success should attend the efforts of those directing the corn campaign—but we have our doubts.

People who claim to know whereof they speak assert that more money is today hidden under mattresses, in the old time clock, under stones, in the basement and various other hiding places than has ever been the case. Whenever this money is released and put in the channels of trade improvement will be noted, but owners of this buried treasure must be assured against losses before they will "loosen up."

The election of a Missouri congressman ties the vote in the lower house when organization comes up. A democrat succeeds a republican loss by death, leaving the two big parties even in number of votes—and both sides are rather afraid of assuming responsibility for the months just ahead of a presidential campaign.

There is every indication that England and her colonies will abandon the old free trade policies under which the empire has grown strong. Depleted revenues for governmental operation compels a change of method and levying a tariff is uppermost in the minds of those who direct the policies of the English.

BETTER FEELING IS AIM OF C. OF C. IN SERIES OF TALKS

PURPOSE IS TO INITIATE A NEW UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN RETAILER AND CONSUMER

Every woman in Brainerd and vicinity will have the opportunity soon of becoming a partner in a fifty billion dollar business, according to an announcement of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce today relative to a joint campaign of the organization and the United States Chamber of Commerce to initiate a new day of understanding between retailers and consumers.

"Fifty billion dollars represents the amount of retail business done annually in the United States," Mr. Tyrholm, president of the Chamber states. "In other words consumers spend that amount of money in retail stores. And most of the money is spent by women. Strange as it may seem, consumers as a whole know very little about the functions and operations of the stores in which they spend their money."

"The situation is more interesting when we realize that retailers and consumers are utterly dependent on each other. Without consumers, the stores would be forced to close; without stores, the consumer would be unable to satisfy daily necessities and luxuries."

Because merchants as a whole are eager to serve their customers in the most efficient possible manner, and consumers, in turn, are constantly seeking a greater satisfaction and enjoyment in buying, the Chamber will present a series of talks to consumers through the media of radio and newspaper. Messages from six prominent American women representing various women's interests will be presented.

"Tremendous improvement in retailing has resulted in the last few years from a closer relationship between manufacturer, wholesaler and retailer," Mr. Tyrholm points out. "Yet the consumer, the ultimate in distribution, has not been taken into the 'partnership.' As a result misunderstanding arises frequently and illfounded statements pertaining to retailing are easily passed along because the average consumer is ignorant of facts relating to retail operations and functions."

"It is our plan to inform the consumer of her importance in the business life of the community and nation; to clear up a number of popular misconceptions of retailing that exist in so many persons' minds, and to stress the value of a deeper understanding of the interdependence of consumer and retailer in terms of benefits to both. In other words, we propose to 'take the consumer in as a partner' whose dividends will be better merchandise and a greater satisfaction in shopping."

"Every woman who buys things in retail stores will be interested in the series of talks arranged through a network of Columbia Broadcasting, System stations extending from coast to coast including Station WCCO of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Announcement of the dates and speakers will be made later, according to Mr. Tyrholm."

Faithful Chinese Servant Blamed Gaming for Theft

Tientsin, Oct. 2.—(UP)—C. A. Yapha left the city on a business trip recently. Upon his return he found that his Chinese servant, whom he had employed for five years, had disappeared along with his wardrobe.

A few days later he received a letter enclosing 13 pawn-tickets, and reading as follows:

"My Master: I beg to state that I was compelled to have pawned your clothes for dozens of dollars because I lost too much by gambling as a result of momentary fool during your absence of one month and I am unable to redeem the property now. As it is very shameful to see you, I start now for Shanghai to claim for payment from others. I will return in about ten days and make payment in full."

Yapha paid $78 to the pawnbroker to recover goods worth $800.

VALIANT, TRACY HEAD DELEGATION TO DULUTH MEET

The seventy-second annual session of the Minnesota Baptist convention will be held in Duluth, October 12, 13. Preceding the official opening of the First Baptist church and Geo. A. Tracy, member of the State Board of Trustees, will head the Brainerd delegation.

The meetings will be held in the First Baptist church, which has one of the most beautiful auditoriums in the state. A large interior window installed by Tiffany ornaments the baptistry. It presents a life-size picture of Jesus at the tomb of Lazarus, and when illuminated creates an impression which will not soon be forgotten. 14. Rev. E. A. Valiant, pastor of the convention, there will be simultaneous meetings of the women and of the ministers on Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. The first session of the convention convenes Monday evening and continues through Tuesday and Wednesday with three sessions each day.

Special features of the program will be addresses by Dr. Austen K. de Blois, president of the Eastern Theological Seminary, who will represent the Home Mission Society; Dr. P. H. J. Political Preparations--

What promises to be a red hot campaign is now in the offing. Republicans will quietly nominate Herbert Hoover as their candidate and he must win or lose on the record of his white house occupancy. That he and the republican party will be vociferously blamed for all the evil things that have come to pass during his tenure of office is certain. That conditions are worse in other parts of the world will have no deterrent effect on the noise makers and blame fixers of the opposition party, the fact that England has free trade and the dole will not be mentioned, Germany's alleged distress will be minimized. Republicans will be confronted with plenty of trouble.

Democrats will have their chief trouble in the preliminaries determining who shall be their standard bearer. After the nomination is made their lines must be formed to face the political foe. Friends of Gov. Roosevelt, who have been congratulating themselves in anticipation of an easy and early victory in securing his nomination, are beginning to realize that other men in the party, probably in the belief that there is a good chance for victory in the general election, propose to wage a strenuous fight for the nomination. Jim Reed, of Missouri, coyly admits that he would like to carry the support of his home state to the convention, Arkansas will present Senator Robinson for consideration, Ritchie, of Maryland, will be in the running, the shadow of Al Smith hovers over everything and a host of other dark horses will show up. With enmities engendered by a sharp contest the presidential contest promises to be a real horse race.

Try to Punish Minnesota--

Nearly all states have some strange laws, placed there to cover some specific purpose at the time the law was created or to please the whim of some legislator. Pennsylvania is seeking to punish Minnesota because the latter urges upon its citizens the use of products available within the state, a position which seems to affect the equilibrium of the Keystone state authorities.

Within our confines we have a wealth of building stone of superior quality, but Pennsylvania objects to our use of this splendid building material if it deprives them of a market for similar material to be found in Pennsylvania. The attorney general has gone so far as to warn intending purchasers that if goods or materials are to be paid for out of state funds they must not be bought in Minnesota. A very foolish position for the authorities of one state to take and one which cannot be maintained by Pennsylvania.

The Keystone state has been the particular beneficiary of a protective tariff and it is possible that its citizens have grown so strong in their demands against competing with other nations that they now believe they are the favored folks who should also be absolved from meeting prices at the hands of dealers in other states. Men who are attempting to raise the price of corn and hold it at 60 cents per bushel should have no difficulty whatever in accomplishing their object if their own words are to be credited. They claim the corn crop of 1931 is 300,000,000 bushels below normal and that the Argentine surplus is depleted. With such conditions prevailing success should attend the efforts of those directing the corn campaign—but we have our doubts.

PURPOSE IS TO INITIATE A NEW UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN RETAILER AND CONSUMER

Every woman in Brainerd and vicinity will have the opportunity soon of becoming a partner in a fifty billion dollar business, according to an announcement of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce today relative to a joint campaign of the organization and the United States Chamber of Commerce to initiate a new day of understanding between retailers and consumers.

"Fifty billion dollars represents the amount of retail business done annually in the United States," Mr. Tyrholm, president of the Chamber states. "In other words consumers spend that amount of money in retail stores. And most of the money is spent by women. Strange as it may seem, consumers as a whole know very little about the functions and operations of the stores in which they spend their money."

"The situation is more interesting when we realize that retailers and consumers are utterly dependent on each other. Without consumers, the stores would be forced to close; without stores, the consumer would be unable to satisfy daily necessities and luxuries."

"Every woman who buys things in retail stores will be interested in the series of talks arranged through a network of Columbia Broadcasting System stations extending from coast to coast including Station WCCO of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Announcement of the dates and speakers will be made later, according to Mr. Tyrholm.

BRAINERD 25 Years Ago

October 2, 1906

T. H. Britton of this city has returned from a two month's visit to Sauk Rapids, Alexandria and other points.

Dr. Camp returned today from Walker where he had been on business for the Sanatorium being erected there.

The Brainerd high school football team has organized for the season with the following officers:

Prof. Jones, faculty manager and coach.

Ray Barron, student manager.

Bert Abear, captain and student coach.

The boys report good material and expect to have a strong team this season. They will get out for scrimmages with the second team Friday and Saturday night.

Last Sunday the home of Charles Dahl was entered and bureau drawers ransacked but nothing of value was found to be missing.

There was a special car of lumber jacks brought in from Duluth on No. 11 and sent north on the M. & I. this afternoon.

C. W. Masseau, assistant general manager of the Northwestern Telephone Company, is in the city today and assures the citizens that there will be prompt improvement in the equipment and service of the local exchange at Brainerd.

Mrs. Hollenbeck of Duluth was in the city today to bid goodbye to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, before departing for Spokane.

Faithful Chinese Servant Blamed Gaming for Theft

Tientsin, Oct. 2.—(UP)—C. A. Yapha left the city on a business trip recently. Upon his return he found that his Chinese servant, whom he had employed for five years, had disappeared along with his wardrobe.

A few days later he received a letter enclosing 13 pawn-tickets, and reading as follows:

"My Master: I beg to state that I was compelled to have pawned your clothes for dozens of dollars because I lost too much by gambling as a result of momentary fool during your absence of one month and I am unable to redeem the property now. As it is very shameful to see you, I start now for Shanghai to claim for payment from others. I will return in about ten days and make payment in full."

Yapha paid $78 to the pawnbroker to recover goods worth $800.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Godfred Peterson, Pequot, a girl, this morning at St. Joseph's hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Condo, Apartment 6, Ohio block, a girl this morning at St. Joseph's hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lingwall, Garrison, a boy this morning at St. Joseph's hospital.

Girl Captures Burglar
Perry, Kan., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Single handed and without firing a shot, Miss Guilletta Stark captured a burglar who entered the home of Mayor P. H. Oliver in his absence. Miss Stark saw the intruder enter the Oliver home through the rear door, followed him and ordered him to leave, and in the face of violence threats caused him to surrender and march with her to police headquarters.

R. R. Gould returned yesterday after visiting his father in Jamestown, New York. He reports that business conditions in Brainerd and this section are much better than those in the east. Brainerd is nearer normal than any locality he passed through or visited.

VALIANT, TRACY HEAD DELEGATION TO DULUTH MEET

The seventy-second annual session of the Minnesota Baptist convention will be held in Duluth, October 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. Preceding the official opening of the First Baptist church and Geo. A. Tracy, member of the State Board of Trustees, will head the Brainerd delegation.

The meetings will be held in the First Baptist church, which has one of the most beautiful auditoriums in the state. A large interior window installed by Tiffany ornaments the baptistry. It presents a life-size picture of Jesus at the tomb of Lazarus, and when illuminated creates an impression which will not soon be forgotten.

Special features of the program will be addresses by Dr. Austen K. de Blois, president of the Eastern Theological Seminary, who will represent the Home Mission Society; Dr. P. H. J. Lerrigo, secretary of the Foreign Society, who will present the situation on the foreign fields which he has recently visited; Mrs. Maybelle McVeigh LeGrand, representing the Women's societies; and Rev. Miles W. Smith of Philadelphia, a specialist in Young People's Work.

There will be conferences on Evangelism, Religious Education and Rural Work in which the intimate problems of these phases of the work will be considered.

The whole work of Minnesota Baptists for the year will be reviewed, and the problems and unique challenge in the present critical hour will be reviewed.

To Permit Mooney to Broadcast from Prison

Sacramento, Calif., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Thomas Mooney will not be permitted to broadcast from his cell in San Quentin prison.

Permission for the broadcast, sought by radio station WOR of Newark, N. J., was first denied by Warden James B. Holoham, whose stand later was upheld by Daniel J. O'Brien, state director of penology. The question was referred to O'Brien by Governor Rolph.

The request was made to allow Mooney broadcast his reasons why he should be freed from his conviction for participation in the 1916 preparedness day bombing in San Francisco.

Wisconsin Librarian Taken by Death

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Miss Debora Beaumont Martin, 73, noted Wisconsin librarian and historian, died at her home yesterday.

She was the daughter of Morgan L. Martin, who served as chairman of Wisconsin's constitutional convention, after coming to this state from New York more than 100 years ago. Martin was associated with Solomon J. Neau in the early planning of the city of Milwaukee.

Miss Martin was in charge of the Kellogg library here for many years and was a member of the State Historical society.

CAPONE TAKES UP SIDE LINES

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Costly trials and the depression have hit Alphonse (Scarface) Al Capone so hard he has gone into the gingerale and pretzel business, it was reported today.

For months, bootleggers have had to accept Al's dictates as to what kind of beer they should sell and even, in many instances, as to how much they should sell. Now, according to reports, Capone also is selling gingerale and pretzels to the saloon keepers and if they refuse to buy from him he puts them out of business.

Also, reports say, Capone has agents who furnish table linen for all saloons and others who see that the linens are sent to laundries where Capone collects a percentage on all work done.

KEPT FAITH WITH LAW

Duck hunters in the Brainerd Lake Region were conscientious about not jumping the gun at the start of the hunting season Thursday. As a result many hunters watched with itching trigger fingers as flocks of ducks swept low over them. At 12 noon, sharp on the second the blast started.

Chief of Police Thomas Templeton and Sheriff Frank Little were in a boat on the west end of Johnson's Gardens.

At two minutes to noon a fine flock of mallards came low over them but the officers of the law steered themselves and did not fire.

"It would have been the best shot of the day, too," Chief Templeton said.

Free Show Tickets to Person Over 60—That is If Accompanied by Parents

Are you past 60 years of age? If so you can obtain a free ticket to the Paramount theatre to see Will Rogers in "Young as You Feel" opening for a two-day engagement Sunday.

But, there is one restriction. You must be accompanied by your parents. At least that is what guest tickets now being distributed about Brainerd tell.

Born of the fertile brain of Harry Greenberg, enterprising playhouse impresario, the idea was expected by Greenberg to reveal just a few. But, Harry has not reckoned well as to the hardiness and longevity of the people of Brainerd and the vicinity. Already, parties are being formed by the "youngsters" and their parents for the event.

Stillwater, Minn., Oct. 1.—(UP)—A. H. Dehmer, St. Paul, today was given a sentence of 60 days for running down Game Warden Walter Klinefelter last year. Dehmer was ordered to jail.

Dehmer was sentenced to serve the sentence by Judge A. P. Stolberg after St. Paul police reported he had violated his suspension. Klinefelter was run down in June, 1930, when he attempted to arrest two men found seining fish in the St. Croix.

VARIATIONS IN COFFEE FLAVOR LAID TO BULK ROASTING

Hills Bros. Coffee Doesn't Vary in Flavor, Because of Radically Different Process

It is almost impossible to keep bulk-roasted coffee from varying in flavor. For in bulk roasting it is difficult to roast each big batch alike. One lot may be slightly overdone—another a little underdone. Naturally, they each have a different flavor.

Hills Bros. discarded the bulk method for a process they invented and patented. It is called Controlled Roasting, and the roast is positively controlled! Variation is overcome. Every pound of Hills Bros. Coffee has the same rich, full-bodied flavor.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow—a little at a time—so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by this patented process that roasts evenly, continuously... a little at a time. No other process is like it. That's why Hills Bros. Coffee has a flavor no other coffee has.

Hills Bros. pack their coffee in vacuum cans. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary, "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. But Hills Bros. Coffee can't go stale. Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

CAPONE TAKES UP SIDE-LINES

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Costly trials and the depression have hit Alphonse (Scarface) Al Capone so hard he has gone into the gingerale and pretzel business, it was reported today.

For months, bootleggers have had to accept Al's dictates as to what kind of beer they should sell and even, in many instances, as to how much they should sell. Now, according to reports, Capone also is selling gingerale and pretzels to the saloon keepers and if they refuse to buy from him he puts them out of business.

Also, reports say, Capone has agents who furnish table linen for all saloons and others who see that the linens are sent to laundries where Capone collects a percentage on all work done.

Free Show Tickets to Person Over 60—That is If Accompanied by Parents

Are you past 60 years of age? If so you can obtain a free ticket to the Paramount theatre to see Will Rogers in "Young as you Feel" opening for a two-day engagement Sunday.

But, there is one restriction. You must be accompanied by your parents. At least that is what guest tickets now being distributed about Brainerd tell.

Born of the fertile brain of Harry Greenberg, enterprising playhouse impresario, the idea was expected by Greenberg to reveal just a few. But, Harry has not reckoned well as to the hardiness and longevity of the people of Brainerd and the vicinity. Already, parties are being formed by the "youngsters" and their parents for the event.
